

Joining ISSOTL's Open Discussion Group

★ ISSOTL Open Discussion

This discussion group is sponsored by the International Society for the Scholarship of Teaching and Learning \(ISSOTL\) and is open to its members and others interested in the scholarship of teaching and learning (SoTL). You may post questions, responses, resources, and announcements related to SoTL or to those interested in SoTL. Please refrain from posting about other topics.

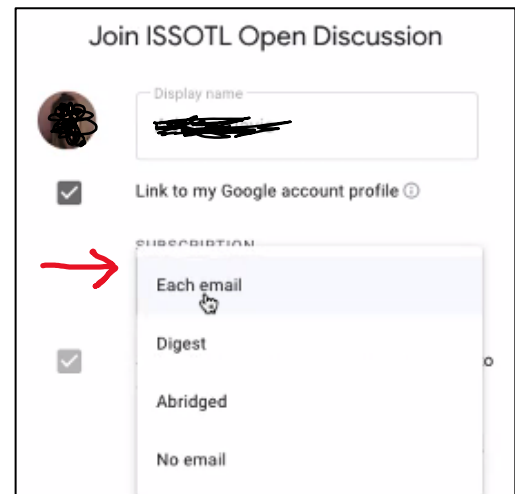

1. Go to <https://groups.google.com/a/issotl.com/g/issotl-discussion>.
2. Click the “Join group” button. (See the screenshot below.)

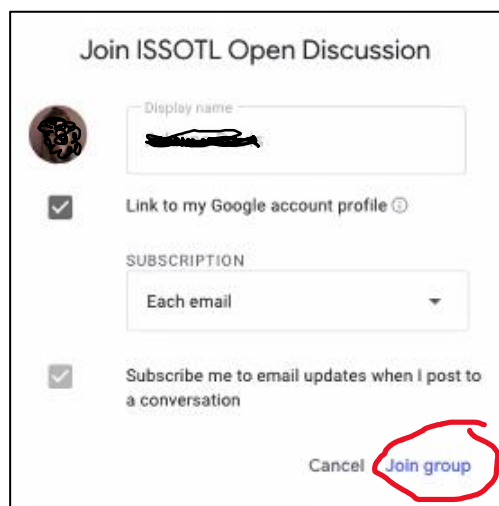

3. A “Join ISSOTL Open Discussion” window will pop up. Using the drop-down menu under “SUBSCRIPTION,” select how you want to receive messages from the group:

- “each email” individually
- compiled together in a single “digest” email each day
- summarized in an “abridged” email daily
- “no email” at all and you’ll just visit this web page to see the messages

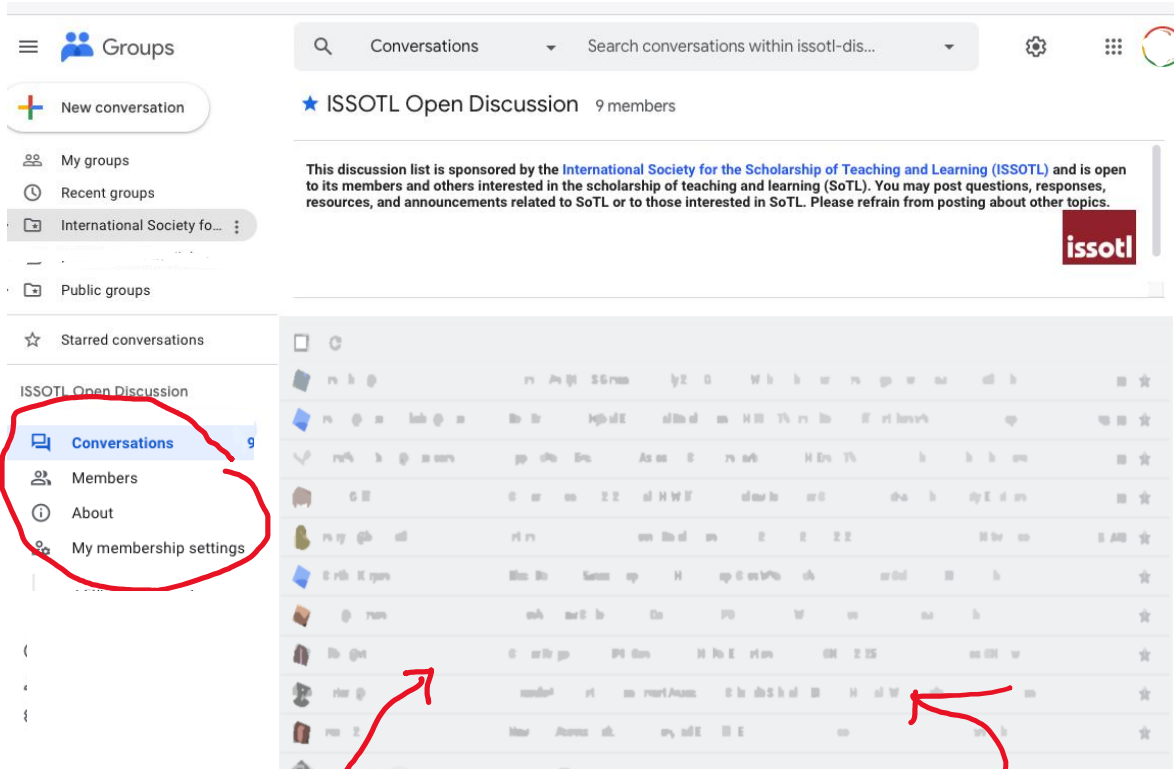

(You can change this option at any time in “My membership settings.”)

4. After you’ve made your selection, click “Join group.”

5. You're now subscribed to the ISSOTL Open Discussion group. You'll see the web page where you can see an archive of messages, view a list of other group members, and change your membership settings.

Previous discussions will be archived here, organized chronologically by subject line

- If your screen looks like the image below (or if you are unable to access the web page at all), email us directly at issotl.communications@gmail.com, and we'll add you to the group manually. (Don't click "Contact owners and managers" button: it doesn't work.)
